

Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 08 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Showery rain in west on Wednesday. Mainly dry in east.

This Evening and Tonight:

The east will stay dry with late sunny spells then clear spells overnight. The west becoming cloudier with some patchy rain developing, A mild night.

Wednesday:

Most areas staying cloudy with occasional mainly light rain, though a few short heavier outbreaks are possible in the west. A few bright spells in east. Feeling warm and humid.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

Rather cloudy and windy on Thursday with patchy rain in the northwest, but some bright spells elsewhere. Friday and Saturday mainly dry with some sunshine.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.